THE GOLDEN LIME OF TUHELJ

Amateur choirs (mixed, female and male choirs) and vocal groups can compete in one category.

RULES

- Total program duration with no breaks: 8 – 12 minutes
- Number of compositions: 3 – 4 compositions
- The program has to be performed a cappella
- Only one composition can be performed with piano accompaniment but only if it was originally composed that way
- At least one composition has to be composed by the author from the country of the choir
- Choirs are free in choosing compositions for the program
- The choir conductor is obligated to inform the jury if there is a change in tonality of the composition

EXPERT EVALUATION COMMITTEE

The competition will be assessed by the Expert Evaluation Committee.

Performance of every composition will be evaluated according to the following elements:

- Difficulty and conception of the program
- Intonation
- Interpretation (articulation, tempo, dynamics)
- Vocal technique
- Artistic impression in general

AWARDS AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Expert Evaluation Committee will award the following awards:

- Golden plaque for choirs and vocal groups that scored at least 90 points
- Silver plaque for choirs and vocal groups that scored at least 80 points
- Bronze plaque for choirs and vocal groups that scored at least 70 points
- Participating acknowledgements for all other choirs and vocal groups

The Expert Evaluation Committee can award choir conductors for special artistic impressions and other prominent elements in performing the program.

GRAND PRIX

„ZLATNA LIPA TUHLJA – THE GOLDEN LIME of TUHELJ“
